Abu Dhabi based Zulfiquar Ghadiyali commits 10 Million USD for joint development of Agriculture and allied business with Agzon Agro Pvt. Ltd, company focused on Agri-tech and Agri-process integration.

Mumbai, September 11th

Agzon Agro Pvt. Ltd, an Agri-focused organization with its headquarters in Pune, India announces a strategic alliance with H.E. Mr. Zulfiquar Z. Ghadiyali, a serial entrepreneur focused on emerging technology initiatives and Agri-tech enthusiast. Mr. Ghadiyali is also Executive Director of Abu Dhabi based DIHC, (under the chairmanship of H.H Sheikh Mohammad Bin Sultan Bin Hamdan Al Nahyan) besides being on board of several companies in the field of Technology, Real Estate, Hospitality, Fertilizer, Defense and Cyber Security. Mr. Ghadiyali have been in investment management business with experience of managing Proprietary and third-party funds. Both have envisioned to support technological upgradation of Agri sector across developing world. Mr. Ghadiyali bring along decades of experience of mentoring start ups, which is most critical for global expansion paving way for massive social entrepreneurship drive across India and several agro-based economies worldwide.

Agzon Agro envisions to support rural businesses and farming with a common goal to achieve industrialised farming within India and have decided to work together with their stakeholders to help farmers and more than 65% population residing across the rural India which are directly or indirectly associated with agriculture sector.

Under mentorship of H.E. Mr. Zulfiquar Z. Ghadiyali, Agzon Agro will achieve access to world class technology, quality and long term capital infusion and digital market place backed by robust forwardly integrated technology. This will help modernise the farming processes. Intensive farming techniques shall lead to higher agricultural yield, revolutionise export oriented agriculture. The result shall bring higher levels of foreign exchange and investment in the otherwise depressed agriculture sector of India.

Massive unemployment and lack lustre demand shall to an extent be curtailed by this initiative. Together, this alliance endeavours to bring social empowerment through self-employment. The focus will be also to support Women empowerment, Education and Healthcare through its welfare driven approach. Agzon Agro shall immensely benefit from the experience of Blue Sky Village Co, UK registered company focussed on Social Impact entrepreneurship which, is also co-founded by Mr. Ghadiyali along with Social activist and entrepreneur-UK based Nic Careem.

Agzon Agro also plans to create employment via its path breaking idea of Business on Wheels. The initiatives involves creating direct delivery system for Agro produce from Farm to fork by cutting down middle men and pass the benefit to the consumer and also generate employment. The company has decided to purchase Auto rickshaws which shall make door to door delivery easier. The Autos are developed with Chennai Based MAuto which has pioneered the low cost Electric Vehicle segment. Fully home grown and made under "Make In India" initiative promoted by Indian Govt. The concept of "Farm-to Fork Caddy" is being initiated. It shall generate employment opportunities across India. Ms. Yasmeen Jawharali (CEO, MAuto Electric Mobility) added that MAuto has already empowered more than 2000 women entrepreneurs and trans-genders across the state of Tamil Nadu.

Agzon Agro had launched it's Agri-tech venture to link the demand-supply through its venture Agzon Agritech on the 15th of August 2020 which has already put Agzon Agro in the spotlight with recent recognition from "start-Up India" initiative by Ministry of Commerce, Govt. of India.

H.E. Mr. Zulfiqar Z. Ghadiyali says, it's time agriculture sector get its due for the advantages it brings to society besides feeding life forms. The timing is apt to glamorize farming and revolutionise agriculture in India by empowerment through employment. Fresh equity infusion shall bring renewed confidence and interest for the sector leading to capacity enhancement of agriculture and allied process and activities.

He added Agzon Agro has been working for more than 4 years with more than 50,000 growers across the Northern and Western states of the country, under the Mentorship of Mr. Zulfiqar Z. Ghadiyali would be able to achieve exponential growth. The idea is to empower the rural population dependent on Agri and Allied Sector.
